

Tom Trumper

Tom owns and operates Pacific Rim Seafoods and delivers urchins world-wide. He is the North Coast representative and Vice-President of the California Sea Urchin Commission. He served on the North Coast Marine Life Protection Act Stakeholder Group.

Tom started fishing sea urchins in 1975 and dives 120 to 170 days per year. He has been an urchin diver on both coasts including the states of California, Oregon, and Alaska and has also been a sponge diver in Florida. Tom also holds three permits in Alaska where he fishes with his sons harvesting sea urchin, cucumber and geoduck clams.
